Procedures

- Are there any requirements for running for a seat on the 2020 CTA Board of Directors?
 - All nominees must be members of CTA with active memberships in good standing as of November 27, 2019, at the latest. Individuals who are not members of CTA, or whose membership in CTA has lapsed, may not run for a position on the 2020 CTA Board of Directors.
- Who may vote in the election for the 2020 CTA Board of Directors?
 - In order to submit a vote, an individual must be a member of CTA with an active membership in good standing as of December 11, 2019, at the latest. Individuals who are not members of CTA, or whose membership in CTA has lapsed, may not vote in the election of the 2020 CTA Board of Directors.
- If I am nominated for a position on the 2020 CTA Board of Directors, may I inform individuals of that fact prior to November 29, 2019?
 - Yes. The CTA Nominations Committee will officially announce nominees for the 2020 CTA Board of Directors on November 29, 2019, but nominees may disclose the fact of their nomination prior to that date if they so choose.
- If I am considering running for a position on the 2020 CTA Board of Directors, may I ask the Nominations Committee if other nominees are already running for that position?
 - The Nominations Committee will inform prospective nominees whether other nominations for a particular position have been received, but will not provide the identities of any nominees prior to November 29, 2019.
- How will voting take place?
 - Votes will be recorded via Google Forms
- How many votes may I cast?
 - Each eligible CTA member may only cast one vote. The Nominations Committee will implement measures to ensure that only one vote per eligible member is cast.
- May I change my vote after I have already voted?
 - No. No votes will be changed once they are submitted.
- Will the Nominations Committee provide vote tallies?
 - Generally speaking, the Nominations Committee will only provide vote tallies to members of the CTA incumbent Board of Directors who are not running for positions on the 2020 CTA Board of Directors in the event that potential voting irregularities are discovered.

Additional information regarding the elections process for CTA's Board of Directors is set forth in Article VII of CTA's bylaws (<https://www.capital-tennis.org/resources/Documents/CTA%20Bylaws%2010-29-2019.pdf>).
